LOCKS4VANS

Terry Rayner is Commercial Director for Locks4Vans and has been using his extensive knowledge of the Commercial Vehicle market to spearhead the business growth plan at the UK's market leading van security company. Born in Benfleet Essex, Terry Rayner is a self-confessed petrol head and unsurprisingly followed his grandfather's footsteps into the Ford Motor Company, starting his 40-year career at the "Blue Oval" as a Technical Apprentice. He quickly moved through the Ford ranks in various Sales and Aftersales roles to become the first Commercial Vehicle Director to exceed 100,000 sales in Britain before moving to the Dubai office to successfully launch Transit in the Middle East & Africa. After taking early retirement from Ford, Terry re-emerged in the UK as Head of Sales for LEVC and helped launch the innovative VNS as a viable Electric Van contender. In the summer of 2021 Terry moved to Locks4Vans, joining their Executive Team as Commercial Director.
